

PNWA ... Where you want to be!

For over 75 years, the Pacific Northwest Waterways Association (PNWA) has been a leader in advocacy, access and federal public policy development for the Northwest navigation community. We are the only regional trade group supporting your interests in both critical economic and environmental issues.

Federal legislation and the issues you care about ...

Appropriations (Energy and Water, Transportation, Interior, Homeland Security)
Authorizing Bills [such as Water Resources Development Act (WRDA) and TEA bills]
Regional salmon debate (BiOp lawsuit, river operations, listing/delisting criteria)
Permitting: streamlining, regional general permits, WRDA Section 214, SEF
Port security
Endangered Species Act
Clean Water Act
Columbia River channel deepening
Bonneville Power Administration power rates
FEMA Flood Plain Ordinance

Key relationships with Congress ...

Northwest Congressional delegation – Members and staff in DC, state and district offices
Senate and House Appropriations Committees
Senate Environment & Public Works Committee
House Transportation & Infrastructure Committee

Informing the decisions made by federal agencies ...

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
Bonneville Power Administration
NOAA Fisheries
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)
Environmental Protection Agency
Office of Management and Budget
U.S. Coast Guard
Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Maritime Administration (MARAD)
Inland Waterways Users Board
Economic Development Administration

Strong partnerships with national and regional associations ...

American Association of Port Authorities (AAPA)
National Waterways Conference (NWC)
American Assoc. of State Highway Officials (AASHTO)
Marine Transportation System National Advisory Committee (MTSNAC)
Northwest Power and Conservation Council
Regional Maritime Security Coalition (RMSC)
Northwest RiverPartners
Columbia River Towboat Association (CRTA)
Inland Ports and Navigation Group (IPNG)
Columbia River Channel Coalition
Oregon Public Ports Association (OPPA)
Washington Public Ports Association (WPPA)
California Marine Affairs and Navigation Conference (CMANC)

PNWA ...
Enhancing economic vitality
in the Pacific Northwest since 1934.

