Debbie Bone-Harris celebrated on House floor

Retiring Franklin PUD Senior Public Affairs Manager Debbie Bone-Harris was celebrated on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives Nov. 13 by Rep. Dan Newhouse.

Debbie has dedicated endless hours to educate customers and the public about the value of the federal Columbia and Snake River dam system, and work with state and federal legislators in Olympia and Washington, D.C., to preserve one of our most valuable resources. Nobody does it better when it comes to telling the story of the value of clean, renewable, reliable hydropower.

Debbie was a longtime member of the PNWA Board of Directors, and received our 2019 Distinguished Service Award. Congratulations, Debbie - and enjoy your retirement!

Bellingham Cold Storage hosts NOAA seafood inspections

DID YOU KNOW? On the West Coast of the United States, there are only six official seafood inspection offices run by the NOAA Seafood Inspection Program.

One of them is located at Bellingham Cold Storage on the Bellingham waterfront.

In addition to BCS's frozen and chilled storage services and prime access to international logistics, convenient access to on-site seafood inspection services is another reason that many Puget Sound and Alaskan fishing fleets choose Bellingham Cold Storage.
