PNWA Executive Director, Kristin Meira, was featured on Oregon Public Broadcasting's Think Out Loud today to talk about the Columbia River channel deepening benefits study. Kristin was interviewed by host David Miller and the questions ranged from the growth of tonnage on the Columbia River to the connection between the deeper channel and the ensuing terminal, rail and barge fleet investments on the river. You can listen to the show here, and access the full channel deepening benefits study here.
